Physio, Speech Language, Music,
Occupational Therapists & Dietitians

World Down Syndrome Day 21 March 2019

Since 1985 Therapy Professionals Physio, Speech language, Music and Occupational therapist and dietitians have worked with people who have Down Syndrome.

People with Down Syndrome can live a full and long life. In fact with better medical care they are living longer. As a consequence we are learning more about how the ageing process affects people with Down Syndrome. Premature ageing and dementia are major problems.

Here at Therapy Professionals we understand Down syndrome, the ageing process and dementia and how they affect daily life. If you know someone with Down syndrome who needs help just contact us.
